

International Law Section / Inter-American Legal Affairs Committee in co-sponsorship with the United States-Mexico Bar Association
Present a Half-Day Program

New Legal Developments of Doing Business with Mexico

Mexico is one the largest emerging economies and a solid U.S. business partner. Yet, after many years of free trade under NAFTA, new business opportunities under new rules seem to be appearing in different areas, such as telecom, energy and trade. Our half day program co-sponsored with the U.S. Mexico Bar Association will deal with the new legal aspects of doing business in Mexico. The high ranking speakers from the U.S. and Mexico will deal with those issues. The Mexican Ambassador to the U.S. will make a keynote presentation on business opportunities in Mexico.
